Hello everyone,

I hope the week is going well for you.

I write with just a note to introduce this week's news sheet. As we continue through the Sundays of Easter we look forward to learning what we started considering last Sunday, namely how that early group of disciples worked out together what it meant to be 'the Lord's sent ones'.

As you can imagine, it was hard for the disciples to take in all that had happened. Jesus helps Thomas particularly deal with that in this week's gospel reading.

Alas, Shelly and I will not be with you on Sunday. I say 'alas' as we very much enjoy being part of the St Dunstan's church family and are sad to miss any event. We are also very saddened to find ourselves being away for Roger's Doe's funeral. A minister who is a long-time friend of Priscilla and her family is leading Roger's funeral service.

We are away for that 'vicar's traditional week off after Easter'. It's the first meaningful period of rest since we started with you nearly six months ago now. It's been a joyous six months for us and I look forward to all the Lord has in store for us all in the next six months. Thank you for your part in the life of our church family. With love, prayers and gratitude for you.
Richard
